
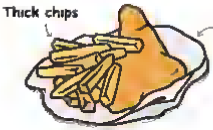
So I decided to eat a piece of chicken and small chips an that day.

Chip Shop

One day,
I went to out to meet Mev after he finished work.

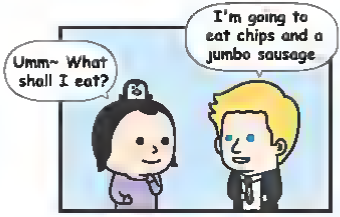
We were already out so we decided to stop by a chip shop.



One of the most famous foods in the UK is fish and chips.

It's not famous because it's the most delicious food. But...

... it's very popular because it's very easy and simple to eat from chip shops like this.



Chip shops sell not only fish and chips but also many different foods like fried sausages, kebab, chicken or pie.

Because no one had ever asked me that before,
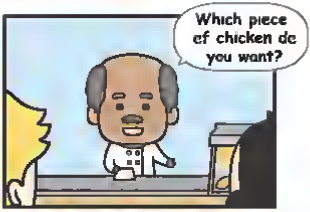
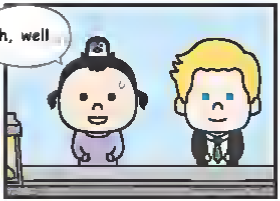
I wasn't ready for the question.
So I answered quickly in a panic.

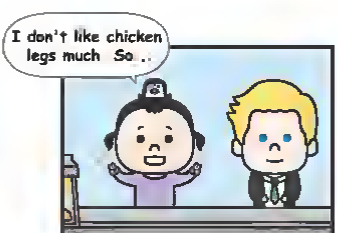
We looked forward to having delicious chips and ordered.



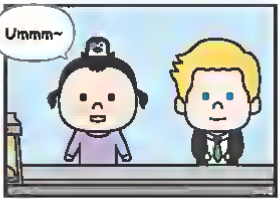
Then the kind owner suddenly asked me which piece of chicken I wanted.



But...

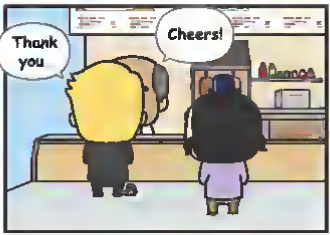


... you know that...



... when you are panicking...

... you can do something really silly without noticing.



Thank you
Cheers!

CAT SHOP

By the way, why did you do that?

I was sooo embarrassed.
